ON MISSILE TESTING

WASHINGTON, Oct.

The Senate Foreign Recommittee will take up see of multiple warhead tests with Secretary of William P. Rogers next Wednesday, the chairman, Senator J. W. Fulbright, Demograt of Arkansas, announced today, Mr. Rogers is to testify in theed session.

Senator Edward W. Massachusetts Republican had earlier called a news conference to urge action on his relation seeking an American had received the multiple independently targetable re-entry vehicle.

Mr. Fulbright replications

Mr. Fulbright replied that some Senators, including of the cosponsors of the lution, felt that action should be deferred until the committee could discuss it with Mr.

Rogers.

"Since early September I have been trying to get the Secretary to meet with the committee," Mr. Fulbright said.
"He has now agreed to come in executive session on next Wednesday and has been informed that one of the species for consideration at that the will be the MINY resolutions."